25.10.2023

RE: RE-ASSIGNMENTS OF ROLES AND DEPARTMENTS

H.E. Governor Gladys Nyasuna Wanga, CBS has today implemented a top leadership reshuffle aimed at promoting synergy, skills development, and strategic alignment.

This strategic move will enhance leadership alignment with our evolving departmental goals and will leverage the diverse skills and experiences of our Chief Officers to drive our vision effectively.

Effective 25th October 2023, the following changes will be implemented:

1. Jack Maurice Obonyo of Blue Economy and Fisheries will now head Trade and Industrialization
2. Judith Mildred Ombok of Gender Inclusivity and Women Empowerment will now take over Agriculture
3. Joshua Orero of Trade will move to Blue Economy and Fisheries
4. Samwel Owigo of Agriculture will take over Irrigation
5. Dolphine Ochere of Education moves to Gender Inclusivity and Women Empowerment
6. Kennedy Odhiambo Ojala Stakeholder Management will head Mining and Digital Economy
7. Maxwell Majiwa Omenda of Irrigation takes over Stakeholder Management
8. Diana Anyango Ongere of Mining and Digital Economy moves to Education

The Chief Officer for Public Communications, Ms. Carren Atieno Otieno will now double up as the Government Spokesperson.

Homa Bay County Government is committed to ensuring that this restructuring enhances our efficiency and better aligns our leadership with the dynamic county's goals and aspirations. We express our gratitude to the outgoing officers for their dedicated service and warmly welcome them to their new roles.
